

Misha's Vineyard Lyric Riesling 2010

(Not available in New Zealand)

"This is the second dry Riesling from Misha's Vineyard. Pale straw colour with green hues, this has a striking, beautifully pure and fine bouquet of limes and orange blossom, attractively exotic in its expression. Dry to taste, this has excellent depth of steely, minerally lime fruit on front palate which nears richness, and a fine, tight, elegant and pure line. The textures are soft and ultra-refined, and the finish is long and sustained, showing nuances of florals, smoke and steel. Serve as an aperitif or with shellfish and subtle Asian cuisine. This will develop greater richness and depth over the next 6-8+ years. Fermented to 12.5% alc. and 5 g/L rs, 13% undergoing wild yeast fermentation in old oak. 343 cases made. Apr 2011"

"Nose: Spicy, sweet citrus including Kaffir lime and lime leaf, Germanic suggestions – crisp apple and slate undertones then hints of Mandarin. For me there is a touch of oak spice which adds complexity. Palate: Just dry dash the Apple, citrus and sweet fruits a contrasted by focused acidity with both flavour and bite dancing on the palate. There is a linear – Germanic side to this wine with lime, sweet Meyer lemon, old-fashioned home-made lemonade, a hint of ginger and a mineral slate under-current. Overall a thoroughly interesting wine that is both individual and classic. A great aperitif –5 Stars".

"Dry and fairly austere wine with very subtle flavours. Good acidity helps drive some length but the flavours are a little green."
